ROLLER HAS ARRIVED FOR DONNELLY MATCH

Doctor Here to Disprove Rumor That He Was Trying to Dodge.

Fully Recovered, and Predicts Victory Monday Night-Irishman Not Saying Much, but Is Equally Confident.

BY "REFEREE!"

Dr. F. F. Roller, who is to meet Mike Ponnelly, of Ireland, in a chainpionship wrestling match at the ball yard Monday night, the winner to have the right to battle with Zbyszko, champion of the world, arrived yesteréay, and is now housed in Murphr's Hotel, where he is going through a systematic course of training. The Stattle physican never looked better in his life. He is Bronzed from the great amount of road work he has been doing, but has taken off some weight and looks every inch a champion.

"I was way up in Montreal when a fellow I met when I was here last showed me a copy of The Times-Dispatch in which Donnelly is quoted as paten in which Donnelly is quoted as saying that I was stalling; that I didn't want to meet him, and that was the reason I asked for a postpone-ment," began the doctor when I talked with him. "Well, here I am, and if anybody is interested in why I asked for a postponement, tell them that I was suffering from a boll on my leg for a postponement, tell them that I was suffering from a boil on my leg, and I wasn't going to take any chances of getting beaten by Donnelly because of any physical defect. That's why I asked for the postponement.

"When I saw that article I made up my mind to cancel all engagements and come to Richmond, so here I am. I had several exhibition matches arranged for Canada, but I sailed them.

am. I had several exhibition matches arranged for Canada, but I called them off, and am here so that the people of Richmond may see that I am not stalling. That word stalling always gets under my shirt and starts scratching. I never stalled or passed up a match in my life.

"Donnelly so far as I am seneral."

"Donnelly, so far as I am concerned, is an unknown. Of course, he has whipped some good men, and his comparatively easy victory of Dave Marparatively easy velctory of Dave Martin, a man who is rated very high in the wrestling world, has increased my respect for the man I expect to beat Monday night, but he had better not work on the theory that I will furnish as easy prey as those he has been defeating.

"I am here to win this battle, People here are interested in wrestling, and I believe, without egotism, are somewhat interested in me. I am going to meet Zbyszko for the championship of the world, and I am going to beat the big Pole, or go down fighting. Just tell everybody that, too. And mind you, I am not underestimating Donnelly. My manager, Billy Sandow, who has watched Donnelly work, tells me that he can go some, and that I will have to put forth my best

COVINGTON IS VICTOR

Hogwood, the Reds' centre gardener, proved true to his name by whaling out four beautiful swats out of five journeys to the pan, one of these hits being a two-bagger.

Robinson was hit right heavily, but might have finished the game but for Coach Dobson's desire to give Flanagar a little workout. And a workout he had, too, showing very good form. For the Spiders, Wiley, Davis and Ancarrow were the best workers, Ancarrow pulling an especially beautiful play, while for the winners Hogwood, Byrd and Charlton were the best month.
